TORONTO and BROSSARD, Québec, Nov. 07, 2023 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Bitfarms Ltd. (NASDAQ: BITF // TSX: BITF), a vertically integrated Bitcoin mining company, reported its financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2023, with revenue of $35 million, net loss of $19 million, and Adjusted EBITDA* of $7 million. All financial references are in U.S. dollars.

"During the third quarter of 2023, we increased operating capacity by 27 MW to 234 MW and by another 6 MW to 240 MW in October 2023. We executed plans to opportunistically expand farms with low-cost hydro power in Québec and Latin America, while we continued to prudently strengthen balance sheet liquidity preparing for the next BTC Halving," said Geoff Morphy, CEO of Bitfarms. "We remain committed to investing in new facilities and miner upgrades at pricing with attractive returns. Now, with the introduction of higher efficiency, lower-priced miners, we plan to move aggressively to capitalize on more competitive pricing for equipment upgrades.

"Our geographic diversification continues to deliver competitive advantages. In Québec, where we utilize 100% renewable power, we purchased, energized, and then increased our Baie-Comeau farm to 11 MW. In LATAM, we've achieved operational success and are benefitting from exceptionally low-cost energy in the region. In Rio Cuarto, Argentina, we employed creative miner racking to extend beyond our original design of 50 MW to 54 MW. In Paso Pe, Paraguay, we acquired power purchase agreements as the foundation of a transformative expansion and began construction at our 50 MW facility. With the Paso Pe addition, we are on track to increase our Q3 2023 operating capacity by 24% to 290 MW in Q1 2024. With our international development experience spanning four countries in two continents, we are well-positioned to continue our expansion and reduce production costs as we approach the Halving and capture market share consolidation opportunities that will likely arise after-Halving," Morphy concluded.
